It's not gonna be alright
F#m F#m/E
What are you gonna do about it
C#m E/B A
Get back in bed and turn out the light
F#m F#m/E
Try not to think about it

But this is all there is my friend
A C#m F#m
A moment to feel the turning of the moon
D D
The song stuck in your head
A C#m F#m B
The secrets hidden in the hollow of your bones

Decades float by
Half awake, half holding on
One outrage at a time
Look around another one's gone

And this is all there is my friend
Tree to tree searching for food
Fingers caressing your head
The rush of laughter lighting up the room

C#m Cmaj7 Bsus4 Cmaj7 C#m Cmaj7
The thrill of letting go! the thrill of letting go the thrill of letting go

This is all there is my friend
A lesson spinning underneath your heart
One more chance to understand
Here we are and here we are
